2. Warm Approach for Referral

Hi [Name],

We're both from [IIT/NIT/shared connection]. I see you're working at [Company] – I've been building with [their tech stack] and have a project I think the team would find interesting.

Would you be open to a 15-minute call? I'd love your perspective on [specific thing], and if you think my profile is a fit, I'd appreciate a referral. Either way, no pressure – just trying to learn!

[Link to GitHub/Project]

3. Join These Communities (Where Referrals Happen)

- AI Engineer Discord (discord.gg/ai-engineer)
- LangChain Discord

- Share your project builds publicly (LinkedIn posts, GitHub)
- Comment thoughtfully on AI engineers' posts
- Build in public → recruiters find YOU

□ How to Stand Out Without Experience

Your Unfair Advantages as a Fresher:

Strategy	Implementation
Build > Resume	PranRakshak AI level projects are better than any degree
Deployed Projects	Live demo > GitHub README. Deploy on Railway/HuggingFace Spaces/Render
Hackathon Pedigree	NIT Hamirpur finalist = strong signal. Always lead with this
Open Source	1 merged PR to LangChain > 10 stars on your own repo
Write Online	LinkedIn posts about what you built get recruiter DMs
Niche Specialization	"Healthcare AI + RAG + SHAP explainability" > "Full Stack Dev"
YouTube/Blog	Explain your projects in 5-minute videos = massive visibility
Cold Project Demos	DM a founder with a Loom video of your project = high response rate
Benchmark Your Work	Show metrics (accuracy, latency, recall) not just what you built
Certifications	DeepLearning.AI, fast.ai, Google ML Crash Course = supporting signal

Specific Actions (Do This Week):

1. Push PranRakshak AI to GitHub with a stellar README + demo GIF
2. Deploy a live demo (HuggingFace Spaces, Railway, or Render)
3. Write a LinkedIn post: "I built an AI hospital command center for sepsis detection — here's what I learned about RAG + SHAP + FastAPI"
4. Find and attempt 1 good-first-issue on LangChain or LlamaIndex
5. DM 3 engineers from target companies with personalized notes

❑ Key Metrics to Include in Every Application

When applying to AI companies, always include quantifiable metrics from your projects:

Instead of This	Say This
"Built a sepsis detection model"	"Built sepsis detection model with 87%+ AUROC on PhysioNet 2019 ICU dataset, reducing false negatives by X%"
"Used LangChain for RAG"	"Built RAG clinical copilot with <2s latency using Groq Llama-3.3-70B + Chroma vector store"
"Participated in hackathon"	"Finalist at Hack On Hills (NIT Hamirpur, 500+ teams) — built FarmCulture AI crop recommendation system"
"Know FastAPI"	"Deployed FastAPI backend serving 12 ML endpoints with SHAP explainability on [cloud provider]"
